

Citation to Accompany the Certificate of Honourary Membership
Of Commodore Ronald W. Warwick
In the Company of Master Mariners of Canada

Commodore Ronald W. Warwick, OBE FNI has been duly elected an Honourary Member of the Maritimes Division of The Company of Master Mariners of Canada in accordance with by-law 7 of "The Company".

The Master, Council and Members of the Maritimes Division, which is based in the port-city of Halifax, Nova Scotia, birthplace of Sir Samuel Cunard the founder of Cunard Steamship Company the successors to which Commodore Warwick has served with much distinction for many years, recognize by this election, Commodore Warwick's outstanding professionalism from his beginning service as a cadet at HMS Conway to Master Mariner, his dedication to the profession, his influence in having the statue to Sir Samuel Cunard created and erected in Halifax as well as assistance provided to the Maritime Museum of the Atlantic in supporting the maintenance of marine history, and the exemplary way he has conducted himself in the many high-profile activities as a Commanding Officer of super passenger ships.

Commodore Warwick, we are proud to welcome you as an Honourary Member.

Presented at Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada this 13th day of October, 2006

A handwritten signature in blue ink, reading "J. Calvesbert", is positioned above the printed name of the signatory.

Capt. Jim Calvesbert
Divisional Master, Maritimes Division
Company of Master Mariners of Canada

Presentation of Honorary Membership in the Company of Master Mariners of Canada to Commodore Ronald W. Warwick, OBE, FNI
October 13, 2006 by the Maritimes Division at Halifax, NS

Mrs. Calvesbert, Capt. A. Knight, Mrs. Knight, Mrs. Maginley, Capt. C. Maginley

Caterer, Capt. A. McDonald, Commodore Warwick, Mrs. Warwick

Commodore Warwick receiving Honorary Membership from Capt. J. Calvesbert, Divisional Master

Commodore Warwick, Capt. J. Calvesbert, Capt. A. McDonald

Cunard new and old "House Flags"

Commodore & Mrs. Warwick, Mrs & Capt. J. Calvesbert, Mrs. & Capt. A.
McDonald, Mrs. & Capt. A. Knight

Presentation of Honourary Membership in the Company of Master Mariners of Canada to Commodore Ronald W. Warwick, OBE, FNI
October 13, 2006 by the Maritimes Division at Halifax, NS

Master's Bell and Chair

Presentation Room at Maritime Museum of the Atlantic

Commodore Warwick recounting his sailing history

"Brittania" and "The Queens"

Mrs. Langely, Capt. F. MacArthur, Ms. P. Jessup